In last week's sermon on Risk-Taking Mission and Service, a quote was used from Jackie Pullinger:

"As Christians we are called to have 'soft hearts and hard feet,' because of experiences in life we often have the opposite.

A short prayer:

Lord, thank you for the breath of your Spirit each day of my life. May your grace reach out to me to soften my heart and may I be given your love for others that enables me to keep that soft heart even when life is difficult. Amen.
